COUNTLESS FASHION AND ACCESSORIES DESIGNERS started their careers with a stall at Portobello Market. Now, for those unwilling to traipse into London for their wares, there is pretaportobello.com featuring a great selection of stallholders' goods.

Three cheers

For all their grand claims, sometimes all we want from anti-aging products is something that smells nice, feels nice and looks great on our bathroom shelves. The new Le Vin range, made using antioxidants derived from the chardonnay grape, fulfils all three. Eye serum, £57, from Harvey Nichols (020 7235 5000)

'Iranian Photography Now' isn't a title to set art hearts racing, but this new compendium (Hatje Cantz, £30) shows what we've been missing. Thirty-six residents and exiles of Iran are showcased, including Shirin Neshat and Javad Montazeri. Out on 8 September
